A Picture of "Impeachment."

SENATOR FESSENDEN, in a letter to a committee of Boston Merchants who had invited him to a public dinner, gives the following picture of the recent 'Impeachment' doings-and what a picture it is-to be drawn, too, by the hand of one of the ablest men belonging to the Radical party!

"Recourse was accordingly had to the most powerful enginery of party. The air was filled with lying rumors, which tound their way to thepublic ear through the appropriate channels. Denunciation, vituperation, calumny, threats of personal violence and of life long infamy were profusely hurled at all who might dare to disobey the public sentiment. The most direfil consequences were predicted in case impeachment should fail. Union men, white and colored, were to be murdered or driven from their homes, and all the horrors of another revolution, bloodier than the first, were to be let loose upon our devoted land.

"It is not to be wondered at that appliances like these should have excited the public mind almost to frenzy. The men who resorted to them were accustomed to the use of such weapons, and knew well how to wield them. Unscrupulous, familiar with detraction; believers neither in public nor private virtue, or if believers considering both as out of place in polities they could not resist such an opportunity, or fail to improve the occasion.

"The excitement elsewhere, however, was trifling when compared with that which prevailed at the capital. Here a change of administration had long been contemplated, and was now counted on as a certainty. That looked-for change had its usual attendants. The coming in of a new President could hardly have warmed into life a more numerous brood of expectants, or stimulated more extensive hopes of honors and profi-s. The city was filled with them ready to jump into places to be made vacant, as they hoped and believed for their benefit. Gamblers thronged the saloons, staking more than they were able to pay upon conviction or acquittal. As these hopes rose or fell with the rumors of the hour, as impeachment stock went up or down upon the political exchange among the crowd of hungry expectants, so for the time, rose and fell the character and reputation of those Senators upon whose votes the result was supposed to depend; while the telegraph was at hand to carry over its wires, to the homes and friends of those Senators, every calumny which disappointed ambititon could imagine, or cupidity and malignity could invent; while a portion of the press, claiming for itself a character for decency, and even for Christian virtue stood ready to endorse and circulate the lie."

EXCURSION ON THE STEAMER COLUMBIA. -The Washington Star says: Quite a large number of our well known citizens, with their families, proceeded to Baltimore on Saturday by rail, and engaged passage on the steamer Columbia, which left Baltimore that day at four o'clock p. m. for Washington. The trip down Chesapeake bay Saturday night was a delightful one, the bracing air from the salt water being extremely cool and pleasant.

The steamer reached Point Lookout about midnight, where she received more passengers and freight and discharged a portion of her cargo. She then ran across the mouth of the Potomac to the Virginia side, and made several landings in the Yeocomico river, and returned to the Maryland side of the Potomac, reaching Piney Point about half-past four o'clock yesterday morning, where there are a number of Washingtonians stopping. After receiving and discharging freight she started up the Potomac. making all the landings for passengers and freight, and reached her wharf at Washington about six o'clock Sunday evening.

The Columbia, which has been running for many years past, is now comfortably fitted up with a large number of state rooms, and with a lew additional improvements can be made a fine passenger steamer.

NORTH CAROLINA. - Governor Worth, the late very estimable Governor of North Carolina, wrote a very brief protest to the new Governor on surrendering the executive office under an order from General Canby. He declares in the protest that neither Holden nor those elected at the time he was have any legal authority to the positions they claim. He does not recognize the validity of their election, and adds that they "have no evidence that they have been elected. save the certificate of a Major-General of the United States army.'

Governor Worth intimates that he would have held his position until forcibly expelled, in order to carry the matter before the Supreme Court, "if the past action of that tribunal furnished any hope of a speedy trial."

THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsiz, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible. YOUNG MEN, Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent taients and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. MARRIAGE. Married Persons, or Young Men comtempla-ting marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily

He who places himself under the care of Dr may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonish-ing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudder sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of wind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritabi ity, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory.

Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emacated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN, Who have injured themselves by a cer tain practice, indulged in, a habit fre quently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prespects and enjoyments of
